Take a Tour through the Twenties with Artifacts from the Homestead’s Collection

The Homestead’s collection contains fascinating objects from 1830 to 1930 that help tell the story of Los Angeles’ transformation from a small pueblo to a major metropolitan city. Join Museum Director Paul R. Spitzzeri as he takes us on a “tour” of the region during the Roaring Twenties through a mix of photographs, maps, newspapers, and more.

October 4, 2020; 2-3:30 p.m.

Signup at homesteadmuseum.org/upcoming-events